So, our run of dry weather finally came to an end. But I'm delighted that the prospect of rain and wind didn't stop many of you from taking the start line.

I was greatly relieved that so many of you liked the new course. The race had unfortunately outgrown the Longwick circuit, to say nothing of the problems with potholes and other road failures.

There's always a bit of excitement when you get an entry from a high-profile team, and so I was very pleased to see that Karla had persuaded a couple of her MG-Maxifuel team-mates to give the TTT a try.

You can then imagine my delight when I got another MG-Maxifuel entry including the illustrious name of Magnus Backstedt – a past winner of Paris-Roubaix, one of cycling's 'Monument' races.

But on the day, it was Team IG – Sigma Sport, led by Wouter Sybrandy who managed to avoid the flints and the potholes to take the top prize. Karla's squad took 3 minutes off the best women's time we've seen.

I did hear rumour that Magnus was keen to return next year, hoping to avoid punctures and challenge for the win. Let's hope it happens!

As ever, I'm hugely grateful to all those of you who took a turn marshalling, pushing, timing, catering etc. There were significant contributions from High Wycombe CC, VC10, Oxford and Cambridge, as well as lots of support and tolerance from my wife and parents.

Ralph
